

FULBRIGHT

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The U.S.-Argentina Fulbright Commission (Fulbright Argentina) invites U.S. and Argentine citizens to apply for the position of Executive Director. Founded in 1963, Fulbright Argentina is a non-profit, binational organization which promotes mutual understanding between both nations through the academic and cultural exchange programs and related services.

The Executive Director oversees an annual budget of over $3.5 million and reports to a binational board, which includes Argentine and U.S. members and representatives of the U.S. Embassy, as well as to the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs.

Demonstrated leadership competencies, program management and development experience, human resources management experience, financial oversight experience, marketing and public relations expertise, and an entrepreneurial spirit are key attributes for this role. The Executive Director is the public face of a high-profile, prestigious binational program, requiring outstanding interpersonal, public speaking, and diplomatic skills. Competitive candidates will demonstrate credibility in action and the ability to bring together different interests in a constructive and solution-oriented manner. The position requires domestic and some international travel to promote U.S.-Argentina academic cooperation and the Fulbright Program.

The candidate should have a minimum of ten years of professional experience; solid knowledge of the higher education and culture sectors, both public and private, in Argentina and the United States; be able to lead and oversee a multicultural team that collaborates with a complex network of stakeholders, and strategically manage and oversee the financial health of the organization. The candidate must already be legally eligible to work in Argentina, possess an advanced degree from a U.S. university (doctoral degree preferred), and have fluency in both English and Spanish.

A competitive compensation package is commensurate with education and experience. Interested candidates should send their CV in English and Spanish and three references to WHAfulbright@gmail.com by April 10, 2024.

Information about the Fulbright Program in Argentina can be found at www.fulbright.edu.ar.